Ds 3053 fillable form

Table of Contents If one of the parents or guardians of a minor cannot be present when obtaining a passport, it is necessary to create a DS-3053 form. In addition to all other documents confirming the American citizenship of the guardians and custody of the minor, one of the parents will need to create a DC-3053 form to confirm their consent to receive a passport for a minor. In our review, you will find all the necessary information regarding the DS-3053 form, how and in what cases to create this document, etc. At the end of the article, you will see a step-by-step guide to completing this document, in which each step will be described in full detail. When to Use Form DS-3053 You may need this document if you are the parent or guardian of a person under the age of 16. If you are traveling to another country, your minor child will need to obtain a US passport to be able to leave the country and prove their American citizenship. The main reason for the creation and use of this document is the inability of one of the parents to be present when obtaining a passport. The reason for the absence of one of the parents can be anything: a business trip, illness, or any other reason. But this does not change the fact that both parents must give their consent to receive a passport for their child. And in this case, the DS-3053 form acts as a confirmation of parental consent to obtain a passport. Notarization Of The Form DS-3053 This document must be notarized. To do this, you need to perform a few simple steps: First, decide whether you will certify the document online or in-person. If you notarize the document personally, you need to take your ID and go to the notary. After that, in the presence of a notary, you will need to create a form and sign the document. Do not forget to give the document to a notary so that they can fill in all the required fields. If you decide to notarize a document online, you will need to go to a website that provides notarial services. You will need to contact the notary via video link, demonstrate your ID, and then fill out the document electronically and sign it electronically. How To Fill Out The Form DS-3053 Filling out the form correctly is the key to getting a valid and valid document. Below you will find a detailed step-by-step guide to filling out the form. The kids are ecstatic to explore a new country next year. But you forgot the one thing that stands between you and your big trip abroad. Your kids don't have a passport (yet). If you're a guardian or parent, you'll need to get a notarized DS-3053, which can unlock a whole new world for your children. Here's what you need to know about notarizing a DS-3053. What is a DS-3053 form? Before we explain what a DS-3053 is, there are a few things you need to know about getting a passport your kids. If you have a child that is under the age of 16 and is in need of a passport, both parents need to give consent for them in order to receive one. But life happens. Your partner may not be able to join you at the Passport Agency. Or perhaps they're away on a business trip and you need to get the passport application filed out now. This is where the DS-3053 comes in. A DS-3053 form is a Statement of Consent form specifically for the Issuance of a Passport to a Minor under the Age of 16. The form is also commonly known as the passport parental consent form. You'll need to fill out this form when you're ready to hand in your child's passport paperwork if your spouse or partner isn't able to join you at the agency. What should I keep in mind when notarizing a DS-3053? Notarizing a DS-3053 form isn't always straight-forward. First, you'll need to be able to furnish documentation of your child's citizenship and guardianship. In addition, you'll need to have your own ID ready when you go to notarize your document online. Lastly, you'll need to furnish a written and signed consent form from the parent who wasn't able to join you at the passport office. If you're the sole guardian or you have sole custody of your child, you won't need a written consent form. The best part about notarizing your DS-3053 form is that you can do it online, anytime. By notarizing your document with Notarize, you don't have to take time off from work or take the kids out of school early to head to the passport agency office. You can get it all done from the comfort of your couch, in between doing homework and eating dinner. How do I get a DS-3053 notarized? Download the DS-3053 form. You can use PDF, DOCX, ODT and HTML format of your document. Fill out the form (but don't sign it!) Log on to Notarize and upload your form. Connect with a commissioned, electronic notary public over your camera-enabled mobile phone, tablet, or laptop. Be sure to have your ID ready. Sign your document in front of the notary and send or download it for printing. That's it! Now you and your kids are one step closer to that trip abroad. Ready to notarize your DS-3053 form?
